

Gary D. Taylor

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2004-present	Extension Specialist and Assistant Professor, Department of Community & Regional Planning, Iowa State University.
1999-2004	Extension State and Local Government Specialist, Michigan State University Extension.
1998-1999	Associate Planner, East Central Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission, Appleton, Wisconsin.
1996-1998	Planning Consultant, Driscoll & Hunter, Seattle Washington.
1993-1995	Attorney, Gary D. Taylor, Attorney at Law, Portland, Oregon.
1988-1993	Attorney, Vick & Gutzler, Portland, Oregon.

EDUCATION

M.C.R.P.	1996	Iowa State University, Community & Regional Planning
J.D.	1988	University of Nebraska College of Law
B.S.	1985	Northwest Missouri State University, Business Administration

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

Taylor, Gary and Mark Wyckoff. 2009. Intergovernmental Zoning Conflicts Over Public Facilities Siting: A Model Framework for Standard State Acts. The Urban Lawyer, 41(4):653-703.

Taylor, Gary. 2007. Iowa Land Use Planning Notebook. Ames, IA: ISU Extension Publication PDO-3.

SELECTED EXTENSION/OUTREACH INITIATIVES

The Midwest Planning BLUZ: ISU Extension's Blog on Land Use and Zoning. Ongoing blog addressing current land use topics relevant to Iowa and the Midwest. Available at <http://www.blogs.extension.iastate.edu/planningBLUZ>.

Iowa Planning and Zoning for Local Officials. Three-hour training program presented in forty-nine locations to approximately 2,100 participants since March 2005.

Should We Stay or Move to Higher Ground? Web conference addressing flood recovery and community planning in the wake of the Spring 2008 floods.

SELECTED SYNERGISTIC ACTIVITIES

- PI. USDA - CSREES/Smith-Lever Special Needs Program Grant: Increasing Citizen Involvement in Hazard Mitigation Planning and Implementation.
- Co-facilitator. Scoping Workshop on Weather and Climate Information Needs for Emergency Response and Hazard Mitigation Planning. Sponsored by NOAA, ISU Climate Science Initiative, ISU Extension and the University of Iowa.
- Member of the EPA workgroup developing the Iowa Climate Change Adaptation and Resilience Pilot Project.
- Member of the Governor-appointed Iowa Smart Planning Taskforce.